

Whispering Pines

Historic Maine Cottage on Alamoosook Lake

Whispering Pines was built in the arts and crafts style of architecture around 1905. This spacious year-round home has 6 bedrooms, 3 baths, 3 private lakeview "sitting areas", and 3 comforting stone hearths. The building complement includes a studio / guest house and a newer dorm building with 3 bedrooms, 1.5 baths, and a 3-bay garage / workshop on the lower level.

The wooded 76 acres of tall pines and broad oaks is laced with hiking trails leading to private vistas and potential waterfront home sites. The property has over 3,500' of frontage on Alamoosook Lake and Dead River and abuts 4,500 acres of conservation land.

Located just a few miles from access to the world class sailing waters of Penobscot Bay, historic Bucksport's marina and shopping, less than 30 miles from I-95 and Bangor International Airport.
