Buyer
REPRESENTATION

WHY CHOOSE A BUYER REPRESENTATIVE?

Through Buyer Representation (Buyer Agency) you will have a sales professional specifically committed to representing you throughout the entire home buying process. When making what may be the largest financial decision of your life, you need to understand for whom your sales professional works. As a homebuyer, your Buyer's Representative is an asset to you because:

A Buyer Representative works for you. When working with a Buyer Representative, you have the advantage of personal representation, independent counseling, loyalty, confidentiality and trust.

If you choose to purchase your home without buyer representation, the real estate sales professional you work with has certain fiduciary responsibilities to the seller of any property you select.

A Buyer Representative can show you every home listed in the Realtor's Multiple Listing Service, including Real Estate Owned (REO) and For Sale By Owner (FSBO) properties. Additionally, a Buyer Representative can show you builder homes and unlisted homes.

A Buyer Representative is obligated to provide you with information about buying a home each step of the way. That means disclosing specifics about location, property values, offering price, negotiations, counter offers, contingencies, financing, and the entire closing process. Armed with such vital and detailed information, you'll be thoroughly prepared to make decisions that are right for you and your family.

A Buyer Representative is fully qualified and highly skilled in contract negotiations and financing queries that precede the closing of most real estate transactions. A Buyer Representative is also committed to helping protect your best interests in the purchase. Representing and supporting you, that's a powerful combination!

Since a Buyer Representative is legally obligated to only you, he or she can help you maintain absolute privacy with regard to financial and personal information.

WHY CHOOSE BUYER REPRESENTATION?

The best decision you can make when buying a new home is choosing buyer representation with your Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices PenFed Realty Sales Professional.
